Notes from the President

Hello Spokane Valley Sea Hawkers,
"ARE YOU READY FOR SOME FOOTBALL!"

I am hoping that we will have a great season. I know I can't wait to start the game watches. The Rock is going to give us our regular spot back, but they are adding a breakfast buffet all you can eat for $9.00. They will also have Bloody Marys available. The bus sure sold out quick, once we found out we were going to have a season. For those of you who wanted to go and did not get on please let me know in case someone cancels at the last minute. Hope to see every one at the next general meeting on the 20th of September at the Rock. "WE ROCK AT THE ROCK"

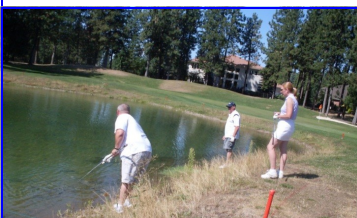

Penny Forney,
GO HAWKS!

Golf Tourney 2011 Wrap-up

The Spokane Valley Seahawks held our annual golf Tournament at The Highlands in Past Falls on Saturday August 27th. What a great time we had thanks to a great job of organizing by Monica. Winners were; Linda & Davey Dykes Closest to the pins, Longest Drive Pat McDonald for the Guys & Monica for the Gals and fewest putts was Jason Bradfish. After the Golf, the Participants and the rest of their Seahawker friends headed for the Hot Rod Café for some great food, beverages and watched a great Victory by our beloved Seahawks over the hated Broncos.

Lose something guys?

Ken Boyd Memorial update

Camp fun in the Sun Director Lisa Randall sent us Thank you letters written by the recipients of the Ken Boyd Memorial scholarship. This is a scholarship set up by our club in Ken's memory, to send a needy child to the Juvenile Diabetes camp. The Seahawks matched our donation so that we could fund 2 scholarships. This should make everyone proud to be a Spokane Valley Seahawker.

Thank you for giving me a scholarship to this camp. I love camp so much I would probably die if I never came to this camp.

Love
Shalvia

Dear C.F.I.D. Helpers,
I want to thank you for the scholarship(s)! We all greatly appreciate it! This is my second year and I love Camp Fun In The Sun, and I hope I can come back next year.
Thank You!

BOARD MEETING MINUTES
SPOKANE VALLEY SEAHAWKERS
August 2, 2011

President Penny called the meeting to order at 7 p.m. Treasurer's report was given by Penny in Monica's absence. Secretary Denny read the minutes from last month's meeting. Penny said that there were approximately two Bus Trip pkgs. still available.

We discussed the Golf Tournament and it was brought to our attention that there were still several openings. Nine people were signed up at this date. Total price for the Golf Tourney is $50.00.

Penny talked about purchasing a canopy. She spoke with Carlos about getting one from them and we decided the price was out of our reach.

Penny agreed to continue looking and we all agreed that we could get a plain one and just display our Seahawk banner on it. Garry said that if anyone was interested in talking further about the Bus Trip or had anyone interested in purchasing a pkg. To contact him personally.

Penny talked about prizes and said she would put together a letter to hand out to people when seeking support from them or securing prizes.

Kammie from the Rock committed to a $25.00 Gift Card and 30 total 2 for 20 coupons for prizes on the Bus.

Denny agreed to send out an email letting everyone know about available spots for the Golf Tourney.

Denny talked about bringing our first guest speaker to the August General Meeting and encouraged others to begin inviting people from the community.

Several Board Members opened the floor for "Seahawk" talk and
